Dedication

We the Shield Staff of 1965 respectfully dedicate this yearbook to our devoted instructor Mr. Arlyn Boll. Mr. Boll is a man of many talents, and he is using them all in the service of his Lord.

When our Savior Jesus Christ said, "Feed my lambs," Mr. Boll listened. His entire life is dedicated to helping young people achieve their spiritual and academic goals. Although Mr. Boll is young in years, he is known for his mature advice and good judgment. Mr. Boll is never too busy to listen to someone's problems, even if it means sacrificing his own spare time.

Realizing that the dedication of a yearbook is only a small token of the high esteem that Mr. Boll so richly deserves, we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Boll in recognition of all he has done for us.

Foreword

The Shield Staff of 1965 presents the moods and expressions of our Crusaders for Christ captured in this last school year.

At Saint Croix Lutheran High School we, the students, are being trained to live as Crusaders for Christ. In Ephesians 6 Paul draws a picture of a Crusader for Christ equipped with the whole armor of God. As we strive against temptation, we surround ourselves with the truth of God, the breastplate of righteousness, and the helmet of salvation---all essential parts of a Christian's armor. In one hand is carried the Shield of Faith, the other holds the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God. As Crusaders we pray for strength which helps us to fight the battle of life.

During the school year many moods and expressions can be seen on the faces of Saint Croix Crusaders. A Crusader may be seen: meditating in Chapel, paying attention in classrooms, concentrating during a test, singing praises to God during choir, feeling fatigued after physical education, eagerly awaiting lunch hour, showing enthusiasm at games, and expressing mixed emotions at graduation.

We hope you will enjoy recalling the moods and expressions which we have collected for this, your 1965 Shield.

"Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine." 1 Tim. 5:17

Our janitor is friendly to us, the students, and should be commended for keeping our school the beautiful place that it is. Mr. Feifarek has served us for a little over one year.

"Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." I Cor. 15:58

CLASS HYMN

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness veils His lovely face,
I trust on His unchanging grace;
In ev'ry high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil.
Refrain.

His oath, His covenant, and blood
Support me in the whelming flood;
When ev'ry earthly prop gives way,
He then is all my Hope and Stay.
Refrain.

When He shall come with trumpet sound,
Oh, may I then in Him be found,
Clothed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.
Refrain.

AND NOW...IT'S OVER

Graduation...seems like such a big word for us.
It means all our high school days are behind us now.
That first year of wonderment and confusion as a freshman;
As sophomores waking to the stimuli of school activities;
Juniors showing initiative and ability to accept responsibility,
And as a senior realizing that the end we have gained
Is only a means to a beginning.

We will never forget...our persistent athletes and scholars,
The excitement of the class plays, the endless days before vacation;
The interminable wait for our class rings, the impossible bookroom,
Living for 3:10 Friday afternoon, the teacher we could never fool;
Ditch-to-ditch paper-plastered roads, the "permanent" temporary,
Our exciting week-end in Chicago, the last-minute cramming for exams,
Those wonderful, lasting friendships formed.

These memories...may dim in time,
But the Light of God's Word in our hearts will ever burn brightly.
And even though there may be times when we don't understand God's ways,
We will ever trust in His unchanging Grace.
Throughout our lives, we will always be grateful to Saint Croix
For the Christian education of our souls, our minds, and our bodies.

Student Council

The Saint Croix Student Council consists of a boy and girl representative elected from each class, plus the President of the Student Body who serves as chairman. In its meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month the Student Council discusses the monthly social activities, annual events such as Career Week, Anniversary-Dress Up Day, and Hobo-Arbor-Lunch Day, and the Three-Point Christmas offering. The individual members carry out the decisions and plans of the body through various committees. The Student Council also strives to accomplish the following goals: involvement of all the students in school activities; improvement of faculty-student relations; elimination of certain discipline problems at school and at social activities and the promotion of Saint Croix Lutheran High School.

Shield

Putting together a yearbook is a tedious, time-consuming, but enjoyable job. The yearbook staff of this year's Shield spent many long hours in assembling this book with the best pictures and copy possible. The two main committees met two hours a week throughout the year plus a few extra meetings.

The staff was composed of five committees: the layout committee, which was responsible for setting up the book; the copy committee, which was responsible for writing all the copy that appears; the typists, who put in print all the copy of the previous committee; the circulation staff, which took care of sales promotion; and the photography staff assisted by a professional photographer, Mr. Dennis (Buzz) Magnuson, for whose time and energy we are truly grateful.

The Staff sincerely hopes this yearbook will bring back many fond memories of this past year at Saint Croix to all those who took their part in making our school the place we love.

Courier

Throughout its six year history the Courier, our school paper, has steadily improved and progressed.

This year's Courier adviser, Mr. Wayne Zuleger, and Editor Don Lorenz paved the way for two important advancements:

The Courier was admitted to two literary associations. The National Scholastic Press Association presents ideas for improving high school newspapers. The International Quill and Scroll Society honors students who make outstanding contributions to their school papers.

The quality of our paper was greatly improved by the addition of photographs to the later issues of this year's Courier. The photographs in our paper certainly help the Courier better present its picture of life at Saint Croix.

Choir I

Choir I, under the direction of Mr. Arlyn Boll, consists of 65 seniors, juniors, and sophomores. The choir offers the Crusaders another opportunity to express their love and praise to God.

In addition to eight Saint Croix Sundays, the choir participated in Christmas at Saint Croix with the singing of "The Road to Bethlehem," by Michael Praetorius. They also took part in the Easter Cantata by presenting "On the Passion of Christ," by David H. Williams.

At the ground-breaking services they showed their thanksgiving with the singing of "O Worship the King," "Great is Thy Mercy," and "Prayer of Thanksgiving."

They presented several secular tunes for June Night.

They ended their year by singing their wishes to the graduation class of 1965.

Croixaliers

The mood at Saint Croix is a singular one because Crusaders wish to serve the Lord and not themselves. A few selected students have a chance to express their joy in the Savior by singing His praise as a Croixalier. The Croixaliers, directed by Mr. Paul Kock, accept invitations from church groups as well as participating in Saint Croix Sundays, at the Recognition Banquet, and at June Night.

Red Cross

The Red Cross was begun this year to express another mood of Crusaders at Saint Croix. Our Red Cross group sponsored a fund drive which enabled us to show thanks for our many blessings. This past year the group has also worked on an album containing pictures of our school, state and city which will be exchanged with a similar one from Germany. The seven members, at least one from each grade, meet once a month to promote Red Cross in our school.

Choir II

Every Wednesday and Friday afternoon the voices of B Choir could be heard coming from the temporary building. This year the choir was made up of thirty-two members under the direction of Mrs. Schroeder, accompanied by Carol Mundt. They participated in "Christmas at Saint Croix" by singing "The Night the Angels Sang," by John Peterson. At Easter they worshipped their newly risen Savior by presenting "Alleluia, Christ is Risen," by Claire Upshur. Their contribution to June Night was several selections from "Mary Poppins," including "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" by Richard M. and Robert B. Sherman. They also presented "Goodnight, My Someone," from the "Music Man" by Meredith Wilson, and "Charade," from "Charade" by Johnny Mercer and Henry Mancini.

Band

The highlight of this band year occurred when the band was able to participate in the Mass Band Festival at Lakeside High School in Lake Mills, Wisconsin. Twenty-five Crusaders attended the band festival held during the first week in April. A large crowd attended the Sunday concert to hear 350 youths give praise to God.

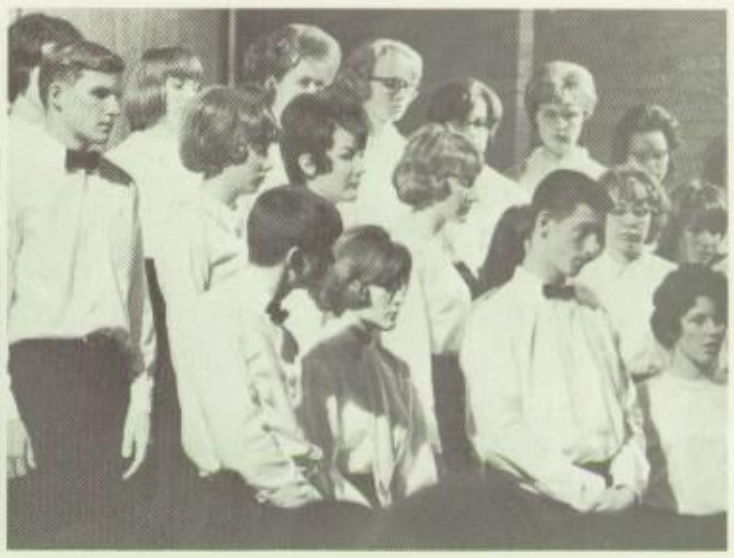
Saint Croix's band was able to participate in Christmas at Saint Croix, basketball games, and June Night.

Every instrumental player receives private lessons during the week from the band's director, Mr. Prahl. The newcomers to band learn how to play the instruments in preparation for entering the regular band. The present band members receive new technique for playing their band pieces.

Thus Saint Croix's band offers the Crusaders another opportunity to praise God.

Christmas at Saint Croix

Christ Lutheran Church in North Saint Paul was the scene of much activity on December 19 as 130 Crusaders and a congregation of 600 worshipped the new born King. "The Night the Angels Sang" was the Choir II's homage to Christ. The Sophmore speech class presented the story of Christmas in "Go ye to Bethlehem". Various Christmas selections were presented by the Croixialiers and the band with Pastor Westendorf and Mr. Schroeder speaking in behalf of Saint Choir. The program was concluded with Choir I singing "The Road to Bethlehem". Everyone enjoyed this opportunity of worshipping the new born King.



Easter Cantata

After many hours of practice the choirs were at last ready to present the Easter Cantata. On April 9 at 8:00 p.m. Emanuel Church was filled with the praising voices of Crusaders. Choir I presented "On the Passion of Christ" by David H. Williams and Choir II sang "Alleluia! Christ is Risen" by Claire Upshur. Crusaders, through this expression of love, had an opportunity to witness again their faith in the risen Savior. After the Cantata a social hour was sponsored by the P.T.A.

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary;..." Isaiah 40:31

"Spectators?"

This year's baseball team compiled a 3-4 record in conference play for the 1965 season. Although, not a very impressive record, the boys fought hard and long all year and could have just as well had a perfect record. Most of the boys agreed that through defeat they really learned a lot more than they would have through victory. They deserve a pat on the back, for this shows that even out of school the boys are putting forth their best Christian efforts. Yes, success was attained and victory was theirs despite the record.

"C" Club

The "C" Club, a new organization this year, was composed of all athletic letter winners. Its purpose was to be of service to the school by supervising and sponsoring athletically-oriented events. This year's officers were Austin Thomas, President; Larry Collyard, Vice President; Rinda Twito, Secretary; and Sandra Kahnert, Treasurer. Mr. John Oldfield was the "C" Club's adviser.

Pep Club

Athletic events are part of another mood of Crusaders at Saint Croix. Our baseball and basketball teams by putting up a good fight create a lot of excitement at the games. The Pep Club was organized to cheer them on and to prompt school spirit in general. During the basketball season they sold Crusader and Pep Club buttons and sponsored buses to New Ulm and Mayer for the student body. This year a uniform was added consisting of a red vest, white blouse, and dark slacks. The following were elected as officers: Kathryn Dufresne, Pres.; Phyllis Lehmann, Vice-Pres.; Priscilla Kurth, Sec.-Treas. Mr. Staab was the group adviser.

Hi C's

Marching is the key word to the Hi C's, started by Mr. Staab two years ago. After much outdoor practice, the Hi C's are ready to perform at basketball games. These girls, through their precision marching, help publicize Saint Croix.

"Who should we lynch?"

"Aren't we active?"

"Look out, Lynn!"

During September the Freshman, accompanied by Mr. Schroeder and Mr. Prahl, went to Taylor's Falls for their Freshman Frolic. The Frolic offered to the Freshman an opportunity to become acquainted with their classmates and to see more of God's marvelous creation. A fun-filled day was spent by the class climbing over the rock formations and enjoying a walk along the St. Croix River.

Hobo - Arbor - Lunch Day

"What will your mother say?"

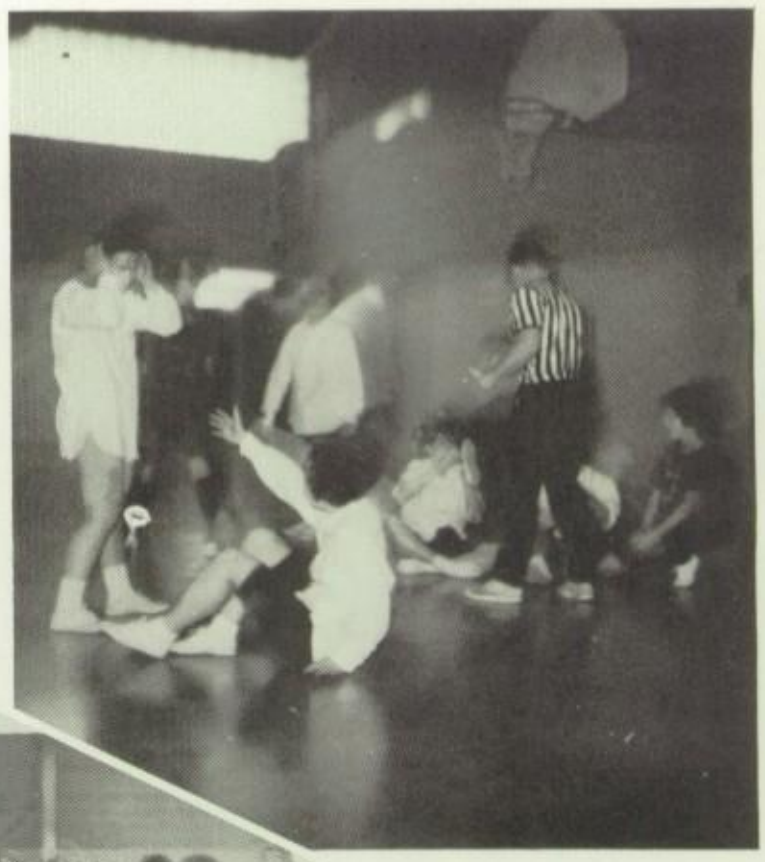
"Say, Mr. Holl..."

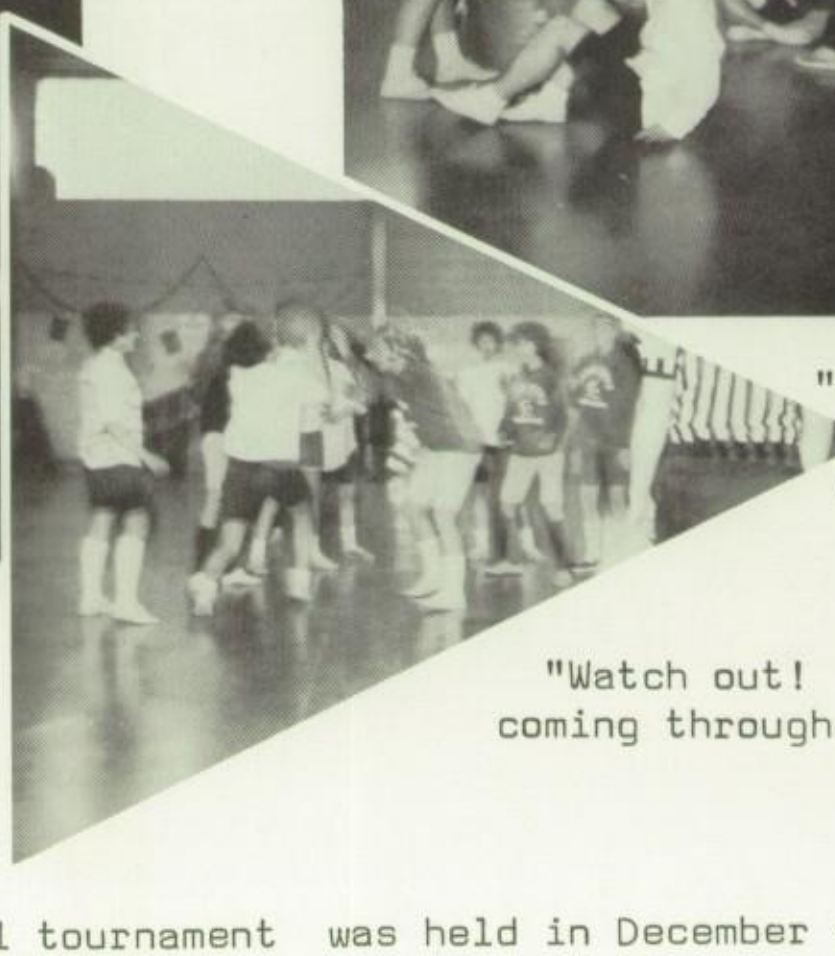
"U-hoo, Larry."

One of the most memorable days of the school year at Saint Croix is Hobo-Arbor-Lunch Day. On this day Crusaders combine pleasure with work as they endeavor to clean up their campus. Although rain dampened this year's HAL Day, it did not dampen the spirits of the students.

Girls' Intramurals

"Relax, we're winning!"





"Typical mass confusion."

"Watch out! I'm coming through."

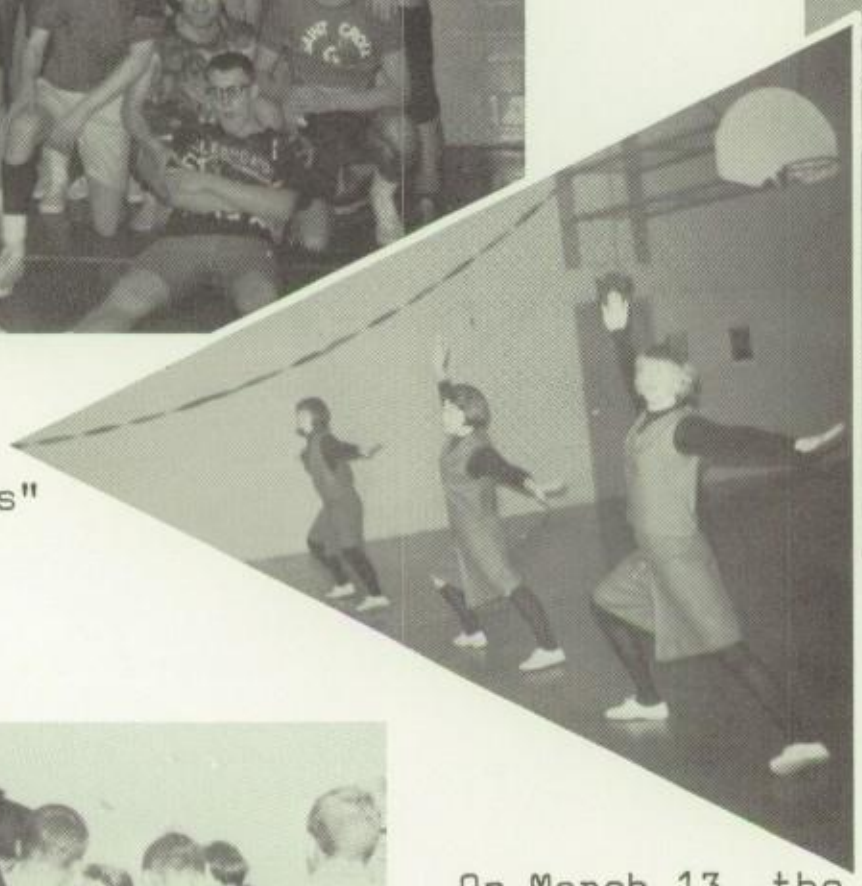
The girls' intramural basketball tournament was held in December at the West Saint Paul Armory. As is always the case, the girls fought extremely hard, and what they lacked in athletic prowess they made up in sheer determination and eagerness. The junior girls were the champions this year, showing just a little too much power and ability to be overcome by their game competitors. The sophomores were second, the seniors third, and the freshmen girls finished fourth. The girls did not limit their athletic endeavors to basketball, however. Bonnie Benson won the ping-pong championship, and she went on to be the Tri-Valley champion. Sharon Sachs was the chess champion of our school.

"Hey! That was a pretty good move!"

"Was that a ping or a pong?"

Boys' Intramurals

"The Winners"



"Well, we look good anyway."

On March 13, the Crusaders held their boys' intramural basketball tournament. The boys really worked hard this year, and the tournament was highlighted with sheer determination and enthusiasm. The senior boys won the championship and the sophomores took consolation. In intramural football the seniors also took first place with the juniors coming in second. In other athletic events, Lynn Feider won the school table tennis championship, and Tim Kurth won the Tri-Valley Athletic Conference championship in chess.

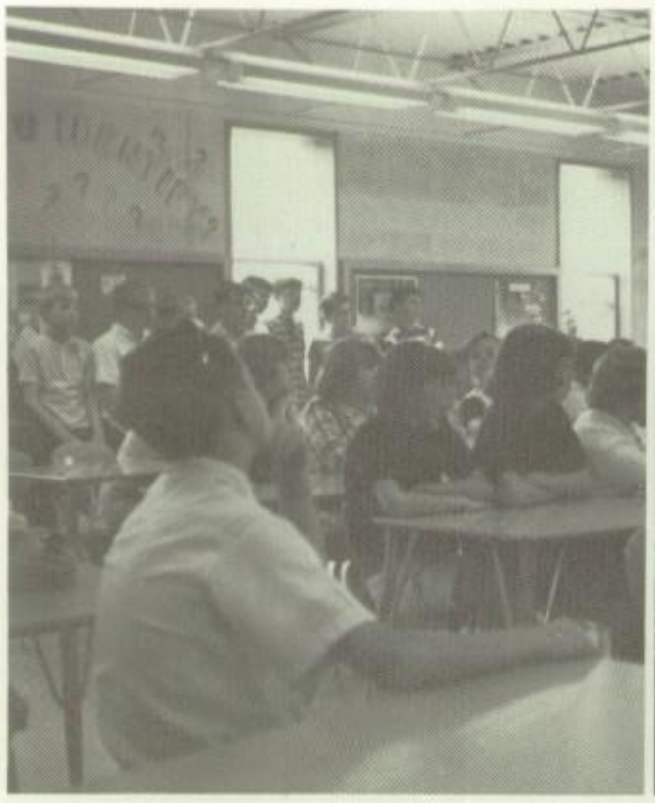
"Let's do this one right."

"Show us how, Ron."

"Aha! He thinks he has me."

Crusader Day

Crusader Day is held to acquaint prospective students with the Crusaders and facilities of Saint Croix. This year the day included outdoor activities, a science demonstration and slides of Crusaders taken throughout the year.



"Don't worry, kids. This won't hurt a bit."

"After you, Pete."

"Race ya to the top!"

School Picnic

This year's picnic was held at Nerstrand Woods. The Crusaders enjoyed a treasure hunt, athletic activities, and a delicious supper. Mr. Schroeder said that this year's picnic was the best since 1959.

June Night

June Night offered Crusaders a chance to show their talents and worship God. The choirs sang a number of secular songs, the band played several selections, and the freshman class presented two plays. P.T.A. members served lunch afterwards.

"Off with his head!"

"You are getting sleepy."

On April 29 and 30 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Rice and Aurora, the junior class presented "Mr. Coed," a three act, fun-filled comedy depicting a naive cowboy's adventures in a girls' college. Under the direction of Mr. Zuleger, and with the assistant direction of Janice Olvik, the 32 juniors worked diligently at preparing scenery, costumes, and other properties which were necessary for expressing the various moods in the play. Their efforts were not in vain. An exuberant applause and laughter showed the appreciation of an attentive audience.

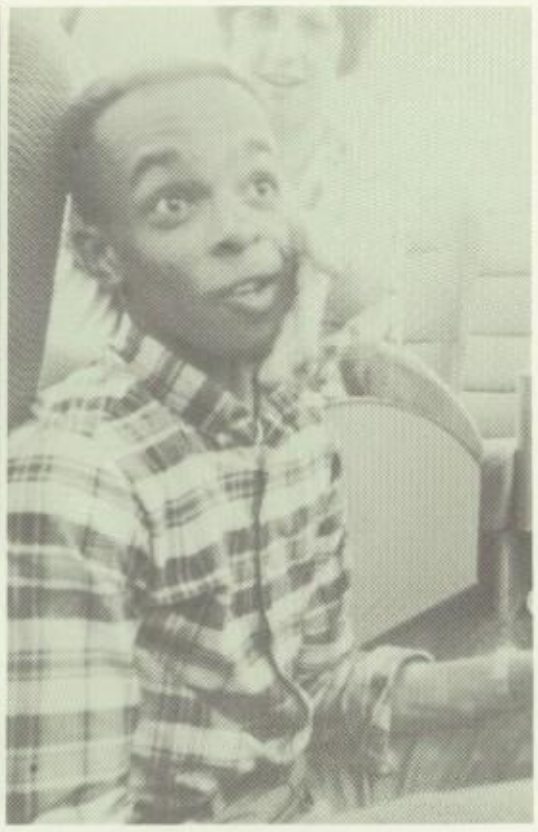
On the nights of October 29th and 30th, the senior class presented the play "Terror in the Suburbs," a three-act suspense-comedy written by Frances L. Stuart. The presentation of this play marked the first time that any class had given its class play on two successive evenings. Together with their director, Mr. Arlyn Boll, thirty-three seniors worked many long, hard hours to prepare the play for presentation to the public. Their efforts were richly rewarded as time after time the basement of Trinity Lutheran Church echoed and re-echoed the laughter and applause of an appreciative audience.

Class Trip

"Let's keep our chop-sticks."



"But I like hats!"

On May 21, an exuberant group of thirty-one seniors departed on their class trip to Chicago. After a lively seven hour train trip, the seniors arrived at their "home away from home," the Palmer House Hotel. Much of the seniors' time in Chicago was spent on guided tours around the city, including such places of interest as the Museum of Science and Industry, the Shedd Aquarium, and the Field Museum. On Sunday morning, the class gathered in one of their hotel rooms to participate in a small chapel service conducted by Mr. Boll. The train trip home was even more exciting than the one on the way down, and the seniors returned home tired but very pleased with their class trip.

The seniors were very grateful to their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn Boll, to Mr. and Mrs. Shember, the Burlington guide and his wife, and to Diane Erickson, who spent so much time and effort organizing this memorable trip.

"Isn't splurging fun?"

"Anybody homesick?"

"Gotcha now, Mr. Boll."

"Quiet, isn't it?"

"...Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord." Matt. 25:21

Recognition Banquet

The 5th annual Recognition Banquet was held at Emanuel Lutheran Church on May 28. The P.T.A. served an excellent ham dinner. Toastmaster Andrew Michalik and Speaker Tom Hall of the Minnesota Vikings added much color to the evening. Mr. Richard Feider delivered the Parent Address; Miss Phyllis Lehmann presented the Student Response. A vocal group of senior girls under the name of the Greenwood Five and the Croixaliers presented the entertainment for the evening. As the highlight to the evening, the athletic, academic, and attendance awards were presented by various members of the faculty.
